SOLDIERS' BALANCES UNCLAIMED.

In pursuance of the "Regimental Debts Act, 1863," notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has available, for distribution amongst the next of kin, the sum of money set opposite to the name of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list which is published with this notice in the "London Gazette" and the "Army List," and is also to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as next of kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not state the dates and places of the soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, and the name of his regiment; his regimental number should also be stated if known.

Should these particulars furnished by the applicant not agree with the facts recorded in the War Office documents relating to the deceased soldier, the applicant will be so informed; but should they agree therewith, then within three calendar months the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for the proof of the alleged relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name should be affixed in the presence of the clergyman, or one of the churchwardens of the parish, or a justice of the peace. The applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated. No personal application can receive attention.

Further lists will from time to time be published, and therefore it will facilitate the applicant's inquiries to give the number and date of the notice in which the deceased soldier's name appeared.

By Order of the said Principal Secretary,
EDWARD LUGARD.

NOTE.—A copy of this Notice is to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Dated the 25th day of August, 1869.

EQUIPMENT AND STORES.

Cl. 143.—Instructions regarding Shells, Fuzes and Adapters.

DISPOSAL OF FUZES AND ADAPTERS.

1. In pursuance of the regulations laid down in W. O. Circular No. 974, dated 14th September, 1866, and referred to in Clause 13, Army Circulars, 1867, the following in structions, in reference to the undermentioned fuzes and adapters, viz. :—

Fuzes, metal—
- Percussion :
  - Armstrong, pillar.
  - Pettman's, Sea Service.
- Time, Boxer :
  - 7½ seconds.
  - 20 seconds.

Adapters, not general service.

will now be carried out.

2. Officers commanding Royal Artillery will demand a sufficient number of Boxe wood time and Pettman general service percussion fuzes to replace, according to th authorized proportions, the Armstrong pillar fuzes and Pettman sea service percussio fuzes in their charge, which form a part of the regular equipment ; and, as the fuze demanded are received, they will deliver over to the nearest military store officer th fuzes which they replace.

3. Officers commanding Royal Artillery will at the same time demand a sufficien number of general service adapters, and plugs to provide one of each for every shell i their charge, belonging to the regular equipment, which has the Moorsom bush.

4. The general service adapters will be screwed into the shells according to the instructions contained in § 1583, "List of Changes." Military store officers will furnish necessary materials on the demand of officers commanding Royal Artillery. Upon service being completed all surplus adapters and plugs will be returned to the rest military store officer.

Fuzes of every description, in excess of the authorized equipment, which may be harge of officers commanding Royal Artillery, will be handed over to the nearest tary store officer.

Military store officers will take steps to have all the Armstrong pillar fuzes in their ge, including those returned from Royal Artillery, exploded by an officer of the al Artillery; and as opportunities offer returned to Woolwich as old metal.

All pillar fuzes in shells in store will be removed and the shells emptied, in accord- with the special instructions embodied in these instructions.

. If the shells referred to in the preceding paragraph are required for actual reserve, r issue, they will be fitted with the general service adapter (in accordance with the ructions contained in § 1583, "List of Changes"), and if required for filled issues, l be refilled and fitted with Pettman general service fuzes.

. No provision will be made to replace the pillar fuzes on board such of her Majesty's s as may be likely to return to England within a period of six months; but the ers commanding other vessels will receive instructions from the Lords Commis- ers of the Admiralty to put forward demands at the earliest opportunity for shells d with Pettman general service fuzes, to replace those in their charge fitted with r fuzes.

). ON NO ACCOUNT IS THE OPERATION OF REMOVING PILLAR FUZES TO BE PERFORMED BOARD SHIP.

. In all cases where the shells of a ship are exchanged, as regulated in paragraph 9, 7½ seconds and 20 seconds metal Boxer time fuzes on board will be exchanged for 9 20 seconds Boxer wood time fuzes, with adapters if necessary.

2. Shells fitted with Pillar fuzes received by military store officers from Her Majesty's s will be dealt with in the same way as those handed over by officers commanding al Artillery (see paragraph 6).

3. As all Pettman sea service and Boxer 7½ and 20 seconds metal fuzes will (in com- nce with § f., clause 6, W. O. Circular No. 974) be gradually withdrawn from the rice, military store officers will take steps to have all those which are or may become xcess of the requirements of the station, exploded or burnt out, in accordance with special instructions on this head, and the metal returned to Woolwich as opportunity r offer.

4. Shells fitted with Pettman sea service fuzes which are on board Her Majesty's s will be retained until the ship is paid off.

5. Steps will be taken by military store officers at home stations to have all shells h the Moorsom bush in store required for reserve or issue fitted with the general rice adapter n all cases where this alteration is made care will be taken by the military store ers to provide suitable fuzes for the shells.

6 Military store officers at foreign stations will take steps to have a similar altera- n applied to the shells required for reserve in their charge so soon as they are in pos- sion of a sufficient number of suitable adapters and fuzes.

Shells not required for reserve can remain as they are.

7. Such shells as are suitable may be supplied to Her Majesty's ships, fuzed with tman sea service fuzes, when there is not a sufficient number of Pettman general vice fuzes in charge to meet demands; but in such cases care will be taken that the p is provided with adapters to fit into the shells if they should be required to be used h time fuzes.

8. All adapters except those termed "general service adapters" will be sent to Wool- ch. Of general service adapters there are two classes, one for spherical shells, the er for rifled shells. Of the first class there only exists one pattern, and this will be ained (see § 1396, List of Changes). Of the other class there are several sorts, only e of which is to be retained, viz.: the pattern stamped II. or III. (see §§ 1238 and 1427, t of Changes).

9. The pattern to be retained will be easily recognized by the fact that it alone will mit of a Pettman general service fuze being screwed into it so that the top of the fuze flush with that of the adapter.

REMOVAL OF FUZES AND EMPTYING SHELLS.

Instructions for Performance of Laboratory Operations.

10. When any laboratory operation, such as removing fuzes and emptying shells, is uired to be performed, the military store officer will inform the controller. The controller will then report the same to the general commanding, who will direct the commanding officer Royal Artillery to take steps for the performance of this duty.

21. These operations are to be carried on in accordance with the following extract from the Queen's Regulations, 1868, (par. 664); the detailed application of these instructions must depend upon the means available at each station.

"(a.) No laboratory operation which involves risk of an explosion is to be carried on within a distance of 400 yards from a magazine in which large quantities of gunpowder are stored.

"(b.) No accumulation of gunpowder or other explosive material is to be allowed on any account in the workshops, or in close proximity to the laboratory buildings. A small expense magazine in a safe position is to be provided, the stores are to be drawn from this magazine in small quantities as required, and the finished work is to be returned to the magazine in the same way. This is a most important point, for notwithstanding every precaution an accident may occur.

"(c.) All the arrangements should, therefore, be made with a view to reduce as far as practicable the amount of explosive or combustible material in a building at any one time, where laboratory operations are being carried on.

"(d.) The destruction of combustible stores by fire, or by breaking up, is on no account to be effected within the precincts of a laboratory.

"(e.) All persons engaged in work connected with combustible stores are to change their outer clothes, viz., coat, waistcoat, trousers, cap and shoes, and to wear the suits specially provided for this purpose.

"(f.) The change of clothes to be effected in a shifting house, where the ordinary clothing is to be deposited.

"(g.) Only steady and intelligent men are to be employed on laboratory work, and the preference is to be given to those who have passed through a course at Woolwich. (Vide paragraph 664, Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1868.)

22. In removing fuzes from shells only such tools as are provided for this purpose will be used, and with respect to the pillar fuze especial care will be taken not to press unduly upon the head on account of its very close proximity to the detonating composition.

23. To reduce the risk of extracting pillar fuzes as far as possible, a special extractor will be supplied.

24. In cases in which the fuze will not yield to the authorized means of extraction the shell, if not provided with an unloading hole, will be placed under water, and in this condition,* a small hole will be bored through the side for the admission of water. The powder will be thoroughly saturated before any further steps are taken to remove the fuze.

25. When this operation cannot be conveniently performed, the shell will be thrown into the sea or otherwise safely disposed of.

26. If the shell has an unloading hole, the unloading hole plug will be unscrewed, the papier mâché wad forced into the interior, and water poured in until the powder is thoroughly saturated.

27. The operation of removing the fuze from the shell will be performed in a separate building, and in the absence of special reasons to the contrary, only one shell will be operated upon at a time.

28. When the fuze is removed a service metal fuze-hole plug will be screwed in to secure the powder, and the shell then conveyed to another building to be emptied.

29. To empty the shell a wooden frame or cradle will be used to rest the shell upon, and the greatest care will be taken that every portion of the bursting charge is removed before the shell is returned into store as empty, water being used to wash out any trace of powder which it may be difficult to remove with the copper scraper.

30. Shells thus emptied will be marked on the head with an E in white paint (at Woolwich, and red paint at other stations, also with a letter to denote the station.

31. Powder from shells will be sifted before it is returned into store; the general regulation quoted above with regard to the non-accumulation of gunpowder in a building being strictly observed.

EXAMINATION OF SHELLS RETURNED INTO STORE.†

32. All shells received into store, whether returned as "filled" or "empty," will be considered as "doubtful."

33. Shells returned as "empty" will be carefully examined for the purpose of ascertaining whether they are entirely free from powder.

---

* Namely, under water.

† Special instructions have been given with regard to the examination of shells returned to Woolwich.

Digitized by Google

24. Shells which have been returned as filled, but from which the powder has been removed since their return, will be similarly examined before being placed with or classed as empty shells.

25. All shells after being examined as above, and found to be free from powder, will be marked with the letter E, at Woolwich with white paint, at all other stations with red paint.

26. A special report will be made in all cases when shells supposed to be empty are found to contain powder, in order that the responsibility for such a circumstance may be fixed.

Cl. 144.—Saluting and Exercising Cartridges of Silk Cloth, for Muzzle-Loading Iron Guns, Land Service.

1. Adverting to § 1780 in List of Changes, June, 1869, it must be fully understood that the object of the introduction of silk cloth cartridges is to lessen the risk of accident consequent on rapid firing from the same gun or guns.

2. The use of these cartridges will therefore be restricted, first to the firing of salutes at such stations as are named in the Queen's Regulations, provided the number of guns available for firing salutes is less than the number of rounds to be fired; secondly, to garrison guns fired at reviews (such as are specially allowed to be held at Dover and Portsmouth), when authorized by the Secretary of State for War; and lastly, to the guns used in the "dismissal" of recruits of garrison brigades.

3. On receipt of this order the nature of the guns to be used in future for salutes (at those stations where salutes are authorized to be fired) and for the dismissal of recruits will be decided upon by the general or other officer commanding the troops at the station, and notified in General Orders, and a copy of the order transmitted for the confirmation of the Secretary of State.

4. In the event of the gun or guns selected not being of the smallest available calibre, the reasons for the selection made will be given.

5. At those stations where morning, noon, evening and signal guns are authorized by the Secretary of State to be fired, cartridges of the present pattern and charge will be made use of, and also for all other purposes not involving risk from rapid firing.

6. Estimates of the quantities of silk cloth cartridges required for the different services for two years' future expenditure will be prepared in accordance with the foregoing conditions by the officer commanding the Royal Artillery at each station, and will be based on the actual expenditure of the last two years, with such modifications as may be probable in the ensuing year.

7. The estimated quantities required for salutes, for reviews and for the dismissal of recruits will be shown separately; the estimate will be submitted for the approval of the general officer commanding, and be forwarded to the district controller.

8. On receipt of these estimates the district controller or commissary in charge, after carefully checking the same, will consolidate the whole into one demand, which will be forwarded to the controller, Royal Arsenal, Woolwich, for supply, on the approval of the Controller in Chief being obtained.

9. On receipt of the cartridges by the store officer of the station they will be held in charge until required by the officer commanding the Royal Artillery, who will from time to time make such demands as the expenditure renders necessary.

10. The cartridges required for the usual salutes will be supplied with the sanction of the general or other officer commanding on authority conveyed by the district controller.

11. The cartridges for reviews will be issued on the authority of the order of the Secretary of State for War for the holding of the review, and for the guns to be used, being given.

12. The cartridges for the dismissal of recruits, namely, six rounds, will be issued on the authority of the Regulations for the Supply of Ammunition, dated February, 1869, page 5, section IV.

13. Before supplies are made, on the authority of the foregoing three paragraphs, the Controller will be responsible that the conditions of the supply, as well as the quantities, are correctly stated.

14. Clauses 2, 6 and 7 of § 1780 of List of Changes, June, 1869, will stand; the remaining clauses are hereby cancelled.

Cl. 145.—Issues of Stores to Colonial Governments.

(Issued as a Special Army Circular, 12th October, 1869.)

1. The Regulations for the supply of Arms, &c. to Colonial Militia and Volunteers, dated 18th March, 1862, and the Circular Memorandum (dated 27th May, 1862) issued therewith to general officers commanding at foreign stations are hereby cancelled.

2. General officers commanding will not permit the issue to colonial governments o War Department stores of any description (except as laid down in paragraphs 4 and 5) unless the supply has been specifically authorized by the Secretary of State for War.

3. Whenever requisitions are received from colonial governments for the supply o stores (except as provided by paragraphs 4 and 5), the general officer commanding wi inform the colonial government that every such application must proceed from th governor of the colony, and be forwarded through the colonial office to the Secretary o State for War for consideration.

4. In any special case, where a departure from the regulation laid down in paragraph may be absolutely necessary, the general officer commanding will, before sanctioning the issue of the stores, obtain from the governor of the colony a written statement tha the service for which the stores are required is one of extraordinary and pressing emer gency, seriously affecting the safety of the community. Whenever stores are thu supplied, a report, detailing the supplies made and all the circumstances, will be immediately sent by the Controller to the War Office, and the general officer commanding will at the same time state fully the reasons for sanctioning the issues, and will forward the correspondence with the governor on the subject. The Secretary of State for War will determine in each case whether or not repayment shall be claimed from the colony In the event of such claim being made it will, as a general rule, be calculated at the cost price of the stores and packages; with an addition of 15 per cent. to cover the expenses of package, conveyance, warehousing and other incidental charges.

5. The rule laid down in paragraph 2 is not to be understood as applying to such limited issues on repayment as the general officer may feel himself justified in sanctioning, having due regard to the requirements of the British service, and to the fact that the reserve of stores in the depôts of the War Department at foreign stations is calculated to meet those requirements only.

6. General officers commanding may accordingly, upon the requisition of the colonial government, authorize the supply of ammunition and cartridges for colonial corps in the proportion fixed below; subject to re-payment by the colony, calculated at the usual re-payment rates, with the addition of 15 per cent. of the value of the supplies The Controller is responsible to the general officer in command, and to the Secretary of State for War, for seeing to the due settlement of all claims for such supplies.

7. The quantity of gun ammunition supplied for colonial Militia and volunteers will not exceed one round per man, with three friction tubes yearly. The proportion of shells to be supplied will not exceed 20 per cent. of the number of rounds authorized.

8. The following are the annual proportions of small-arm ammunition for the practice and exercise of colonial Militia and volunteers:—

	Ball.	Caps.
For each enrolled member annually—
Artillery and Cavalry	50	55
Infantry	100	110

9. Blank cartridge will only be issued from the military store, in cases where it cannot easily be provided by the colony, and then only on re-payment.

10. The yearly issues to Volunteer Corps will be reckoned as due to the corps on or after the 1st January in each year up to the 30th September, when the right to claim the supplies for that year lapses.

11. The ammunition when authorized will be forwarded at the expense of the colonial government to the head-quarters of each corps; in such quantities as may be from time to time required. The packages will be valued at the time of transmission as a debit against the colonial government until returned.

12. No new issue of small-arm ammunition will be made for corps, until the empty packages of the previous issue to that corps have been returned or paid for.

13. Every corps is required to provide a secure place for the custody of its small-arm ammunition; but in cases where the store of ammunition is sufficiently large to make it desirable that military magazines in barracks should be used for its custody, controller acting under the orders of the general officer in command, are instructed to afford facilities for its reception, provided there be sufficient room in the magazines under their charge.

14. The Secretary of State will not, in future, sanction the issue on loan of War Department stores to colonial governments.

15. The colonial government is held responsible that officers commanding corps, and officers and non-commissioned officers having arms, guns or other stores on loan, under former regulations, keep the same in a serviceable state so that they may be returned into store, when required, in good condition, making allowance for fair wear and tear.

16. Should any field guns, arms or stores on loan with the troops of the colony, be no longer required to be retained by these forces, the general officer commanding will apply to the government of the colony, to return them into the stores of the Imperial Government.

17. In case of any arms, guns, &c., being found in bad order, or carelessly kept by the colonial troops, the general officer commanding will apply to the colonial government for their immediate return into the Imperial stores.

18. Arms, guns, and other stores issued on loan, under former regulations, are liable to be recalled at any time.

19. General officers commanding will direct the controller of the station at once to appoint an officer to inquire into and to clear up the accounts of all arms, guns, ammunition, accoutrements, and other stores, which have been lent to any colony; and to settle in communication with the government of the colony the amount of money for which the colony is liable for any deficiencies or neglects; reporting fully thereon for the information of the Secretary of State for War.

20. General or other officers commanding will select one or more officers to make an annual inspection of the corps to which issues on loan have been made under former regulations, authority for such inspection being first obtained from the officer administering the government of the colony for the time being. The arms, armouries, fieldpieces, and all warlike stores, will also be inspected by an officer specially selected by the general or other officer commanding.

21. The inspecting officer will report thereon after a careful and close examination. The report (vide form in Appendix) will be transmitted to the War Office by the general officer commanding, together with any observations he may have to offer thereon. In transmitting the report, the general officer will state whether the arms, field guns, and stores in the hands of the regiment or corps correspond with those issued from government stores, and agree with the entries in the returns of stores held in local charge by military store officers; as also, the condition of the arms, and whether proper storehouses are provided for their safe custody.

22. General officers commanding are requested to forward at once, for the information of the Secretary of State, a report (in accordance with the foregoing paragraph) giving all particulars of a recent careful inspection of the corps to which arms, guns, stores and ammunition have been issued.

23. The controller of the station, acting under the orders of the general officer in command, is responsible to the Secretary of State for War for the due carrying out of these orders in detail, and for enforcing the due and regular accounting for all stores lent to the colonial government.

G.O. 109.—Magic Lantern Slides for Schoolmasters' Lectures.

(Specially issued 4th October, 1869.)

Arrangements having been made to provide a regular supply of diagrams and magic lantern slides, to illustrate the lectures which may be given during the ensuing winter to the troops at the several stations in the United Kingdom named in the annexed list marked A, the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief desires attention to the following rules, which have been drawn up for regulating this service,—and he looks for the co-operation of commanding officers towards carrying out the same, by ensuring the circulation of the slides and diagrams with that regularity upon which the success of the measure will mainly depend, and by the maintenance of order and decorum during the delivery of the lectures.

General officers commanding at the several foreign stations specified in the list B (Appendix A) will be pleased to give effect to these regulations within their respective commands, as far as local circumstances will permit, reporting from time to time their arrangements to this department for the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief's information, and with a view to the same being communicated to the Council of Military Education.

I. The boxes and diagrams, the present stations of which are shown in the annexed list A (Appendix A), should be placed in charge of the senior schoolmaster at the station, or of some other schoolmaster detailed for that duty by the officer commanding.

II. No box or set of diagrams is to be kept at any station longer than three weeks, at the end of which it is to be forwarded to the station next in order, as shown by list A.

III. As soon as a box has been forwarded, the form No. 1,* properly filled up, is to be sent to the address given at the bottom of the form.

IV. The form No. 2*, is to be filled up and sent to the same address, on the receipt of a box of slides.

The name of the station, the date, and the full title of the box should be written on each form.†

V. When any of the slides are broken or injured, full particulars respecting the damage done are to be written on the margin of form 2.

VI. The slides must be carefully placed in each box, in the order given in the detailed lists, and the spaces between the slides and the sides of the box filled up with the wool which has been supplied for this purpose. The slides must be properly packed, to prevent breakage in the transit. The chromatrope, in packing, should be placed at the back of the box.

* Forms 1, 2, 3, 4, and notice of lectures, will be supplied by the Council of Military Education on application.

† Forms are occasionally received which do not contain the name of the station.

GEN. ORDERS—continued.

VII. Each box is to be carefully locked, wrapped up in strong paper, and addressed to the officer commanding at the station to which it is to be sent.

Magic Lantern Slides,
Per Rail, &c.

VIII. The diagrams must be rolled carefully on the piece of wood that is forwarded with each set, packed in strong brown paper, and addressed as stated in No. 7. The word Diagrams is to be written instead of Magic Lantern Slides.

IX. As some of the keys of the circulating boxes have been lost, a pass-key will in future be sent to each of the camps, garrisons, &c., to which the boxes of slides are transmitted. This pass-key is to be given over to the schoolmaster having charge of the magic lanterns, and he will, on removal to another station, deliver it over with the magic lanterns, boxes and diagrams he may have in his possession to such schoolmaster as may be detailed under the orders of the general or other officer in command for that duty.

X. The circulation of the boxes and diagrams is to commence on the 16th of October, 1869, and to cease in March, 1870.

XI. The boxes and diagrams should circulate not later than the periods specified in the List A.

The boxes and diagrams are to remain at the stations to which they may be sent in March, in charge of the schoolmaster, until again required for circulation.

XII. The text books which lecturers may require for the preparation of their lectures* cannot be supplied at the public expense. They should be provided by the Garrison Library Committees out of the library funds. As the boxes are transmitted to the stations in succession, each schoolmaster will find, on referring to list A, the subject on which he will have to lecture when the next set of diagrams or box of slides shall reach the station to which he is attached.

XIII. Application should be made as early as possible,† in conformity with War Office Circular No. 601, for such of the following articles as may be required, viz.:—Best Sperm Oil.—Wicks.—Tin Oil Filler.—Chimney Glasses.—Chamois Leather.—Camphor.‡—Black Oxide of Manganese, Chlorate of Potash (or Oxygen mixture).§—Lime Ball Cylinders.—Metal Rods for Sheet.—Pair of Scissors.—Brown Paper for Packing.—Twine for Packing.—Sheet or Screen, when required.

XIV. All communications respecting the magic lanterns, lectures, &c., are to be addressed to—

The Secretary,
Council of Military Education,
13, Great George Street,
(Magic Lanterns.) London, S.W.

XV. Lecturers should bear in mind, that:

(1.) As a general rule, it is not advisable that the lecture should exceed an hour in delivery.

(2.) The lecture should be made as interesting as possible; statistical and dry details ought to be omitted, unless the lecturer considers it absolutely necessary that such should be mentioned, for the sake of illustration or comparison.

(3.) All explanations should be in clear and simple language; but, where technical and scientific terms are necessary, they should be explained and rendered as intelligible as possible, having reference to the class the lecturer is addressing.

(4.) No slide should be allowed to remain in the lantern longer than ten minutes.

(5.) Before using the lantern the lenses should be taken out and wiped: the lamp glass should be cleaned, and the silver reflector polished. The pictures will be dim and indistinct if the lenses, &c. are not perfectly clean.

(6.) The lime ball cylinders should be gently warmed before they are used.

XVI. An account of the lectures delivered during the season, both at home and abroad, is to be transmitted in April, on the form provided for this purpose.

* See detailed list of slides and diagrams.
† In duplicate on Form No. 4.
‡ The camphor can be dissolved in oil gently warmed over a stove, &c.
§ For one lecture, 1 lb. of oxygen mixture; or ½ lb. chlorate of potash and 2 oz. of manganese.

E.—CIRCULATING SET OF ELECTRICAL APPARATUS.

To afford facilities for the delivery of experimental lectures on science, a complete set of apparatus on frictional electricity has been fitted up in two boxes. This apparatus, with text books on electricity, will be lent to any of the stations specified below for a period not exceeding three weeks.

At the expiration of the three weeks, or sooner, if the apparatus should not be required for so long a period, the boxes are to be transmitted by luggage train to Mr. W. M'Leod Royal Military Asylum, Chelsea, unless instructions should meanwhile be issued to forward them to any other station.

The greatest care is to be taken of the apparatus, and the following rules will be observed:—

I. At the close of a lecture each piece is to be carefully repacked in the drawer, or division, from which it was taken.

II. No one is to work the machine or to handle the apparatus, unless under the superintendence and the direction of the lecturer.

III. The electrical machine must at all times be carefully handled; and to prevent breakage, the side of the plate should never be placed directly in front of a fire.

IV. Application for the apparatus is to be made only by those who have been accustomed to the use of the same, and are qualified to lecture on electricity.

V. To ensure proper arrangements for the circulation of this apparatus to the stations specified, all applications for the loan of the same should be forwarded to the Secretary to the Council of Military Education on or before the 30th October.

SOLDIERS' BALANCES UNCLAIMED.

In pursuance of the "Regimental Debts Act, 1863," notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has available, for distribution amongst the next of kin, the sum of money set opposite to the name of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list which is published with this notice in the "London Gazette" and the "Army List," and is also to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as next of kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not state the dates and places of the soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, and the name of his regiment; his regimental number should also be stated if known.

Should these particulars furnished by the applicant not agree with the facts recorded on the War Office documents relating to the deceased soldier, the applicant will be so informed; but should they agree therewith, then within three calendar months the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for the proof of the alleged relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name should be affixed in the presence of the clergyman, or one of the churchwardens of the parish, or a justice of the peace. The applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated. No personal application can receive attention.

Further lists will from time to time be published, and therefore it will facilitate the applicant's inquiries to give the number and date of the notice in which the deceased soldier's name appeared. Dated this 13th day of October, 1869.

By Order of the said Principal Secretary,
EDWARD LUGARD.

NOTE.—A copy of this Notice is to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Cl. 154.—Royal Warrant Regulating Payments to Officiating Clergymen.

VICTORIA R.

WHEREAS we deem it expedient to revise the Articles of our Royal Warrant of the 3rd of February, 1866, governing the payment of clergymen officiating to our troops;

Our will and pleasure is, that Articles 262 to 267 of our said Royal Warrant be cancelled, and that this our Warrant be, from and after the date thereof, the sole authority regulating such payments.

1. Officiating clergymen, at home or abroad (excepting Canada), whether of the Church of England, or Presbyterian or Roman Catholic Churches, whose appointments shall be approved by our Secretary of State for War, upon the recommendation of the general or other officer commanding at the station, prior to the commencement of their functions, shall be paid at the following rates, according to the average number of officers and soldiers of their respective denominations present at the station during their ministry. These rates shall be held as payment for the proper and efficient discharge of all their duties.

When less than 25 shall be present at the station, no payment shall be made; but when there shall be 25, and upwards, payment shall be made at the rate of 10*s.* yearly for each officer and man for any number up to 100, inclusive; at 3*s.* each for the next 200; and at 2*s.* each for any number in excess of 300.

2. The average referred to in the preceding Article shall be taken for such period only as the numbers at the station amount to the minimum of 25, and upon the numbers in garrison on each Sunday morning during that period. The numbers shall be furnished by the commanding officer, upon the requisition of the clergymen of each denomination.

3. When accommodation at the usual services, with the ordinary congregation, in a church or chapel cannot be provided, and a separate service therein shall be consequently performed specially for the troops, an additional sum of 10*s.* for each separate service shall be granted, upon the certificate of the commanding officer of the necessity for such service, and provided the number of officers and men actually present at the service shall amount to 50.

4. Clergymen, when required to officiate in barracks, shall receive for each separate service a sum of 10*s.* in addition to the capitation pay, provided the number of officers and men present at the service shall not be less than 25. Troops shall, however, attend ordinary places of worship when within reasonable distance, and offering proper accommodation, and no service shall be held in barracks without the previous sanction of the Secretary of State for War. When, by reason of reduction of force, or other circumstances, a paid service in barracks or church is not admissible under this our Royal Warrant, timely notice is to be given to the clergyman by the commanding officer.

5. A clergyman who shall certify that he has engaged clerical assistance for a quarterly period solely on account of the troops, may, upon the withdrawal of the troops during the quarter, or upon the number of troops in his congregation falling below the prescribed minimum, receive 10*s.* a week until the end of such quarter.

6. The payments regulated in Articles 1, 3, 4 shall be made quarterly, in arrear.

Given at our Court at Balmoral, this 28th day of October, 1869, in the thirty-third year of our reign. By Her Majesty's command,

EDWARD CARDWELL.

Secretary of State's Instructions on the foregoing Royal Warrant.

In promulgating the foregoing Royal Warrant regulating the payment of officiating clergymen, the Secretary of State desires that it may be notified as follows:—

1. The duties to be performed by an officiating clergyman in receipt of the capitation pay granted by Article 1 of the foregoing Royal Warrant include baptisms, churchings, and funerals; attending the sick in hospital; and reading prayers with the convalescents, at least once in each week; besides attending generally to the religious instruction and welfare of the troops (including officers), as well as of their wives and families, who belong to such clergyman's communion.

2. Whenever a clergyman who has not been regularly authorized to officiate, is desirous of undertaking the duty, subject to the provisions contained in the foregoing Royal Warrant, the necessary authority for his appointment should be obtained from the War Office through the officer commanding the troops at the station; and every clergyman who voluntarily commences duty to the troops, without having received the approval of the Secretary of State for War, should be informed that payment cannot be guaranteed to him until such approval shall have been officially notified to him.

3. Commanding officers are required to furnish the clergymen, on application from them, with certificates of the numbers of officers and men of the particular denomination who have been present in garrison, and of the numbers (if any) who have actually attended separate services during the period, instructing them to forward their claims at the expiration of each quarter direct to the War Office for consideration. When the certificates have been approved, an authority for the payment of the amount due will be issued. Printed forms of certificate may be obtained from the War Office.

4. In the event of a change of troops occurring, clergymen will be careful to obtain certificates from the officer commanding the corps which is to be relieved, before his quitting the station.

5. These instructions do not apply to clergymen officiating to militia regiments when out for training.

6. War Office Circular 283 is hereby cancelled.

Cl. 155.—Royal Warrant, Revising the Scale of Stoppages from the Pay of the Soldier.

VICTORIA R.

WHEREAS we deem it expedient to revise the regulations governing the stoppages to be made from the pay of the non-commissioned officers and men of our Army;

Our will and pleasure is, that Article 585 of our Royal Warrant of the 3rd February 1866, be cancelled, and the following Article substituted in lieu thereof:—

EDWARD CARDWELL.

Cl. 156.—Instructions for the Recovery of Fines for Drunkenness.

The recovery of fines for drunkenness imposed upon soldiers in accordance with Horse Guards General Order No. 46 (1869) will be regulated as follows:—

1. The particulars of forfeiture will be entered in the Company Pay Lists in the Return of Soldiers under Forfeiture of Pay, &c., and the daily stoppages ordered by paragraph 5, General Order No. 46, will be enforced for such days as the soldier may be in receipt of pay.

2. All fines recovered or in course of recovery will be entered in a special form (see Appendix) in the Paymaster's Quarterly Pay List, and the total of all fines will form a distinct item,—

General Fund, Fines for Drunkenness, in the General State (Debit Side), following the item "Charitable Fund."

3. Returns of fines for drunkenness, signed by the commanding officer and Adjutant, distinguishing those awarded by court martial from those awarded by the commanding officer, will be rendered by the commanding officer to the Paymaster or Accountant at the close of each month. Such returns will enable the Paymaster to check the entries in the Monthly Company Pay Lists, and should subsequently be forwarded to the War Office as vouchers to the Quarterly Pay Lists

4. The recovery of fines for drunkenness will take precedence of all other stoppages except those for the soldier's messing and washing, and will commence from the date on which the fine is inflicted.

Cl. 157.—Extra Pay—Masters of War Department Vessels.

Masters of harbour store vessels at Portsmouth, Devonport and Chatham, while employed on coasting service, will be allowed extra pay at the rate of £1 per month; and the senior seamen of such vessels, when acting as Mates, will be allowed extra pay at the rate of £2 per month. Such extra pay, duly certified by the Controller at the station, will be drawn through the Control Paymaster at the Royal Arsenal, Woolwich.

Cl. 158.—Half Pay of Officers from the India Service.

1. It has been determined by the Secretary of State for War, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State for India in Council, and his Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, that an officer of one of the non-purchase Line Regiments who has entered one of those corps from her Majesty's Indian Service, shall be permitted to retire on half pay after twenty-five years' full pay service, as is permitted to other officers of the British Army, under the 90th Clause of the Royal Warrant of 3rd February, 1866; and that any officer so retiring who may have obtained the rank of Colonel shall retain his claim to promotion to the rank of General Officer on the establishment, if otherwise qualified. The promotions consequent on such retirements will, as a rule, go through the regiments.

2. Such officer after retiring on half pay will also be permitted to exchange back to full pay in a regiment, provided the officer so exchanging to half pay be of not less age than the officer formerly of the Indian Army with whom he may exchange, such exchange being subject to the special sanction of the Secretary of State for India in Council, on the recommendation of the Secretary of State for War and his Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief.

3. Officers on the half pay list, if desirous of permanent retirement, can only claim such Indian pension as they were entitled to at the time of going on half pay.

Cl. 159.—Advance Pay—Troops proceeding to or from India overland.

1. An advance of forty-five days' pay per man will, in future, be issued for troops proceeding by the overland route to and from India.

2. This advance will be liable to a deduction for ship rations for forty days, as hitherto. The additional five days' pay will enable the officer in command of any detachment which may be on board, to meet any claims which may be made against the non-commissioned officers and men under his charge for the value of all damages done by the troops while on board the troop ships, and during the transit through Egypt, as well as for the value of any stores, &c., lost by them on the voyage, immediate payment for which is to be made, as directed at paragraph 1274, Queen's Regulations, and in General Order 103 of 1869.

3. Clause 77, Army Circulars, 1867, is hereby cancelled.

Cl. 160.—Stamps on Cheques.

1. Cheques issued by public accountants for services of the War Department, are exempt from stamp duty if drawn on forms prescribed by Her Majesty's orders. Accountants are therefore requested in future to draw upon unstamped paper, taking care to mark legibly on each cheque the words, "On Her Majesty's Service." The foregoing instructions will be notified by Paymasters and others concerned to their usual bankers.

2. Accountants are reminded that private funds are never to be mixed up with the public accounts (see paragraph 7, clause 70, Army Circulars, 1868, and paragraph 8 of the Regulations appended to clause 46, Army Circulars, 1869).

Cl. 161.—Monthly Estimates—Regimental Paymasters.

When the public service requires the Paymaster to draw the amount of his monthly estimate in proportions differing from those originally shown on the last page of the estimate, the Paymaster will inform the regimental agent of the cause of such deviation, the statement being confirmed by his commanding officer.

Cl. 162.—Clothing Compensation chargeable against India.

1. When clothing compensation claims are recoverable partly from the Government of India and partly from the Imperial Government, the amount claimed for the period chargeable against India will be shown separately in the Pay List, supported by a distinct voucher on W. O. Form 604; the charge against Imperial revenues being similarly supported by a distinct voucher on W. O. Form 604.

2. Regiments and depôts are transferred from the Imperial to the Indian establishment from the day inclusive on which the service companies or troops of a corps embark for India.

3. Regiments returning home from India are placed on the Imperial Establishment, from the day inclusive on which the disembarkation takes place in the United Kingdom.

4. Regimental depôts are transferred from the Indian to the Imperial Establishment on dates specially notified to commanding officers by the War Office.

5. Detachments, or individual soldiers, returning from India and joining depôts or corps not at the time on the Indian Establishment, are borne on the Imperial Establishment from the date inclusive of their disembarkation in the United Kingdom.

6. When the transfer of a regiment, depôt, detachment or individual soldier from one establishment to the other takes place on or before the 16th day of any month, the clothing compensation claims on account of such regiment, depôt, detachment or soldier are chargeable for the whole of the month against the Government to which the transfer is made, and when the transfer takes place on or after the 17th day of the month, the whole of that month's clothing compensation claims are chargeable against the Government from which the transfer is made.

7. The Paymaster of the Royal Victoria Hospital, Netley, will insert in the "No. 1 Report," sent with men who return from India after the transfer of the corps to which they belong to the British Establishment, and who proceed from Netley to join their regiments or depôts, the date on which the men land in this country, and this date will be inserted by the Paymasters into whose payment such men are reported, in Form 2 of the Pay List, in the column "Remarks."

Cl. 163.—Altered Railway Warrants.

It is notified, with reference to Clause 28, Army Circulars, 1867, § 6, that altered warrants will not be acted on in future unless the alteration be verified by the signature of the officer issuing such warrant; but will be liable to be refused by the railway companies, in which case the officer who may be to blame for the irregularity will be held responsible for the consequences of such refusal.

EQUIPMENT, AMMUNITION AND STORES.

Cl. 164.—Equipment Regulations.

1. Regulations fixing the proportions of ammunition and stores for Ordnance equipped for garrison, field and colonial services, are issued with the present Army Circular to those officers whom they concern. These proportions will govern all future requisitions.

2. Clause 103, Army Circulars, 1868, and the portion of the Equipment Regulations issued therewith are hereby cancelled.

Cl. 165.—Ammunition.

1. His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief has issued a General Order directing troops moving from one station to another to retain on regimental charge only sufficient ammunition to provide the guard with 20 rounds per man. The remaining ammunition will be disposed of as follows:—

1st. When the station from which the regiment or detachment moves is a store station the ammunition will be handed over to the local control officer or subordinate, by whom a proper receipt will be granted.

2nd. Where no store depôt exists a control officer or subordinate will be detailed for the purpose of taking over the ammunition from the troops. This officer will be instructed to examine carefully the ammunition given up, noticing any packages which appear to have been opened, and only opening such as he may have reason to believe are defective in condition or deficient in the quantities they are said to contain.

2. Any defects or deficiencies will be promptly reported to the district controller. If the regiment is still in the district he will call upon the commanding officer for explа-nation; but should the regiment have moved to another command, he will then obtain the information through the controller of the district in which it is stationed.

3. The ammunition taken over should be available for immediate transfer to the relieving regiment, which should not be permitted to object to it on the ground of its having been in the men's pouches, as under the provisions of Army Circular of February, 1869 (abolishing the distinction between service and practice ammunition), it is expected that all ammunition given up by the troops leaving a station will be in perfectly good condition.

Cl. 166.—Requisitions in certain Districts at Home.

1. With reference to Clause 111, Army Circulars, 1869, requisitions for camp equipage, personal equipment, guns, gun carriages, side-arms, ammunition, harness, saddlery, artificers' tools, soft-soap, oil, dubbing and all other stores not connected with barracks, hospitals, military prisons, or with the provisioning or clothing of the troops, will, in the following districts, be sent to the Controllers in charge of the reserve stores at the Royal Arsenal and at the respective gun wharves, and not to the Controller in charge of the general duties of the district.

Woolwich District, to the Controller, Royal Arsenal, Woolwich.
Chatham District, Assistant Controller, Gun Wharf, Chatham.
S.W. District, Deputy Controller, Gun Wharf, Portsmouth.
W District, Deputy Controller, Gun Wharf, Devonport.

2. It will be the duty of the Controllers at these posts to obtain the sanction of the general officer commanding to the issue of any stores unprovided for by, or in excess of, the regulations.

3. It is further notified that the Tower of London has ceased to be an issuing station of any stores, except small arms and accoutrements, and is now included under the Royal Arsenal control.

Cl. 167.—Articles for Musketry Instruction.

As all articles for musketry instruction are supplied according to a regulated scale, they will be demanded, as required, by Controllers, in the same way as all other stores, and by troops by ordinary requisition on the Control Department. War Office Form 1102 is hereby cancelled. The duplicate requisitions will be forwarded to the Controller, Woolwich, for supervision and check, immediately after the District Controller has ordered the proper supplies.

Cl. 168.—Marking of Guns, Carriages, &c.

1. It is notified with reference to Army Circulars, Clauses 81 of 1868 and 13 of 1869, that in the event of its being necessary to exchange any guns, &c. in permanent works before the next periodical painting and lacquering take place, each gun, carriage, platform and pile of shot or shell in a battery may be marked with the date when last painted or lacquered, so that the record may be accurately kept.

2. The marking will be of the simple kind, as, for example, "12/69," signifying that the painting, &c. was performed in December, 1869.

3. In batteries of position the date of last painting will be marked on each gun, carriage, &c.

UNION FLAG FOR MILITARY OFFICERS AT SEA.

Cl. 169.

1. It is notified with reference to an order of Her Majesty in Council, dated 7th August, 1869, and Horse Guards General Orders for the present month, that a pattern of the special Union Flag in future to be displayed by military officers when embarked in boats or other vessels has been sealed.

2. Drawings of the four union flags to be used in the future are sent herewith to controllers in charge—

No. 1 is for the diplomatic service .....
„ 2 is for governors of colonies, &c. (the special arms of the colony in the centre) ..... } When embarked.
„ 3 is for military officers .....
„ 4 is for the Admiral of the Fleet only.

Cl. 170.—Troops not to Communicate with, or order Supplies from, Contractors.

1. It is to be clearly understood, that no liability on behalf of the War Department, whether for money to be expended or stores purchased, can be incurred by any officer, noncommissioned officer or other person in the public service, without due authority.

2. The Secretary of State for War will not admit as a charge against the public the cost of any supplies which may be obtained or ordered, otherwise than through the duly authorized channels to incur the liability

3. In all military commands the Generals or other officers commanding are alone duly authorized. They are therefore cautioned against allowing officers, noncommissioned officers, soldiers or persons not specially authorized, to give instructions to contractors or suppliers for stores to be provided; or indeed to hold any communication with contractors or their agents, in respect to articles required or under supply.

4. If it be necessary to hold any communication with contractors or suppliers of stores, or agents, a representation of the circumstances should be made by the commanding or other officer concerned to the senior officer of the department through which the supply is to be obtained; who will, under the orders of the General or other officer commanding, exercise his discretion in the matter.

5. Control or local officers who may be called upon to prepare forms for contracting for supplies, or the performance of any special works or services, are invariably to introduce the following clause into the terms and conditions of the contract:—

"Contractors must at all times clearly understand that all orders, either for works, services or supplies, are to be issued in writing; and that they are not to act upon verbal directions; as the department will not be responsible for any work, services or supplies, executed on verbal orders given by any person whatever."

6. General or other officers commanding will direct the requisite orders to be issued by the Controller, in order to give full effect to the above instructions.

LETTING LANDS AND BUILDINGS.

Cl. 171.

With reference to the instructions contained in paragraph 36, Circular No 34, and paragraph 6, Circular 360, commanding Royal Engineers when proposing to let or re-let any lands or buildings not required for the public service, will submit their reports to the officer commanding, who, if he concurs in the proposed letting, will affix his signature to the report as a sign of approval.

CONTROL DEPARTMENT.

Cl. 172.—Copies of General and Departmental Orders.

1. Copies of all General and Departmental Orders on control matters will be furnished monthly to the War Office by the controller.

2. This instruction will take effect from the date the control system commenced at the station. A complete set of orders will be made up to the end of the month in which this Circular shall be received at the station and forwarded to the War Office.

Cl. 173.—Garrison Libraries.

The duties connected with garrison libraries, hitherto performed by barrackmasters, under paragraph 1059 of the Queen's Regulations, will in future be performed by a commissary of the control department.

GEN. ORDERS—continued.

There will be vacancies for fifteen officers, two of whom may belong to the Royal Artillery, provided they are among the fifteen highest on the list.

It having been decided that, in future, a service of not less than five years, exclusive of leave of absence,* previous to examination, shall be required to render an officer eligible for the Staff College, the attention of officers commanding at home and abroad is called to this decision, which is embodied in Appendix to G.O. 102 of 1868.

The certificates b, c and d, specified in the Queen's Regulations, should, if possible, accompany the officer's application; but if they are not received at the Horse Guards by the 31st July with a satisfactory explanation of the delay, the officer's examination will not be reported on by the Council of Military Education.

HOME STATIONS.

II. Officers serving in the United Kingdom, who are desirous of entering the Staff College, will be examined in London on the 21st July next, and following days.

Commanding officers of Royal Artillery, and of regiments and depôts of Cavalry, Guards and Line on the Home Station, will forward to the Adjutant General, through the usual channel, for the consideration of the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, the applications of such officers as wish to compete for admission, together with the necessary certificates.

Applications should be sent in not later than 15th June; after which date, the officers approved of by His Royal Highness will be instructed to place themselves in communication with the Council of Military Education, with a view to their receiving the rules for their examination.

FOREIGN STATIONS.

III. Candidates wishing to be examined at foreign Stations must send in their applications so that they may be received at the Horse Guards on or before the 1st of May.

The examination papers will only be sent out for those officers whose applications shall have been thus received.

IV. The examination will commence on the 21st July, or as soon after that date as the examination papers shall be received from the Council of Military Education; but no examination will be allowed to commence after the 15th August.

A board of officers will be appointed at the most convenient station of the district, by the general officer in command, and will consist of three officers; one of them to be, when practicable, a staff officer, having the rank of field officer, and the other two, if possible, not under the rank of captain. One of these officers will belong to one of the scientific corps, where any such officer can be obtained.

The questions are to be answered in the presence of the board.

The board will give to each candidate a number, which he will affix to each of his examination papers, instead of his name. He will retain the same number throughout the examination.

The board will give to each candidate a paper of the printed examination questions on each subject, at the time specified for the examination in that subject.

The candidates will write their answers to the questions in the presence of the board, and their papers, together with the printed examination questions, will be collected at the hour appointed, and made up into a packet, which will be sealed before being taken from the examination room.

The board will, immediately on the conclusion of the examination, forward the papers of the candidates to the general officer commanding, for transmission to the Council of Military Education, accompanied by a certificate that the candidates obtained no assistance from books or help of any kind in their examination. The board will, at the same time, forward the names of the candidates, corresponding with their index numbers in the examination, in a separate envelope, for transmission to the Council of Military Education.

V. The following will be the order of the examination:—

* This is not to apply to the usual leave of absence annually granted to officers.

VI. The examination in military history and geography will comprise, as stated in G. O. 110 of 1869, the following portions of military history and geography, viz.:—

1. The operations in East Prussia and Poland, from December, 1806, to June, 1807, with the battle of Friedland in detail.
2. The campaign of 1859, with the battle of Solferino in detail.

Candidates will be expected to have an accurate knowledge of the geography of the seat of war in both campaigns, with reference more especially to military operations.

VII. There will be, in all cases, an interval of not less than one hour between the two periods of examination on each day.

The papers will be collected at the appointed hours by a member of the board. Any candidate, however, who may have finished his examination paper on any subject before the hour named, may deliver it into the hands of a member of the board.

Candidates will bring their writing and drawing materials, instruments, &c., and also the table of logarithms they are in the habit of using. No other books or notes of any description will be allowed to be used.

No communication whatever will be allowed between the candidates at the examination.

VIII. Officers commanding regiments abroad are at once to transmit to the general officer in command, in sufficient time to allow of its reaching the Horse Guards on or before the 1st May, a return of the officers desirous of competing, together with a medical certificate of good health, and fitness for the active duties of the staff. Such officers will then be ordered to join for examination at head quarters, or at any other places which may be selected for the convenience of those at the more distant stations.

IX. General officers commanding at foreign stations will place no restrictions upon officers competing, further than the exigencies of the service may absolutely require. It will be understood that the rule by which only one officer can be spared from a battalion at a time, for the purpose of studying at the Staff College, does not apply to candidates from battalions which have officers now at the College, but whose course of study will terminate in December next.

X. General officers commanding at foreign stations will select the hours for the examination which are best suited to the climate and circumstances of the country, taking care, however, to conform strictly to the number and distribution of the hours, as detailed in the foregoing regulations.

XI. On the completion of the examinations, general officers commanding will transmit the candidates' papers to the Vice President of the Council of Military Education, 11, Great George Street, Westminster, with the least possible delay, in order to enable officers from distant stations, who may be successful in the competition, to join the College early in the following February. They will at the same time forward to the Adjutant General a return of the officers examined, with their certificates, as required by the regulations.

XII. Officers serving abroad, who may be successful candidates, will be allowed the regulated passage money home, on joining the Staff College.

XIII. The names and examination numbers of the candidates who are successful in the competition, as well as of those who prove themselves qualified, but for whom there are no vacancies, and the examination numbers alone of candidates who fail, will be published immediately after the reports of the examiners have been received by the Council of Military Education, with the total number of marks gained by each candidate, and his place on the list.

XIV. Candidates are recommended to obtain the report of the examination for admission, with copies of the examination papers, published by Taylor & Francis, Red Lion Court, Fleet Street, London.

GN. ORDERS—continued.

G.O. 116.—Distinguishing Union Jack.

General and other officers in command at home and foreign stations are hereby instructed to carry out the following order of Her Majesty in Council dated 7th August, 69.

"The union jack being the distinguishing flag of the Admiral of the Fleet only, is not be flown in future by military authorities when embarked in boats or other vessels; t the union flag to be displayed on such occasions is to bear in its centre, as a distinishing mark, the royal initials surrounded by a garland on a blue shield and surmounted a crown."

A pattern flag according to the above description has been prepared and sealed.

G.O. 117.—Ammunition.

Referring to G.O. 94 of 1869, regiments moving from one station to another will only ke with them the quantity of ammunition required to provide a sufficient guard with venty rounds per man.

Any ammunition the regiment may have on charge beyond this quantity, should be anded over to the local control department, a proper receipt being taken.

On arriving at the new station this receipt should be presented to the representative f the controller, when a similar quantity will be issued to complete the corps.

G.O. 118.—Armaments.

Referring to G. O. 52 of this year, paragraph 235 of the Queen's Regulations and Orders or the Army is to be amended as follows, viz.:—

New armaments. 235. When it is necessary to make proposals respecting new armaments, or changes in existing armaments, the officer commanding the Artillery and the commanding Engineer will prepare a joint report, which, with illustrative plans, will be forwarded through the general officer commanding to the Adjutant General for submission to the Commander in Chief and Secretary of State for War. Such report is to be headed with a statement of the number and nature of the guns in the work under consideration, as also an outline of the work itself, if it be not too large and complex in form.

Whenever any guns are mounted in the defences upon local authority, a report of the circumstances is to be made by the general or other officer commanding, to the Adjutant General, for the information of the Commander in Chief and the Secretary of State for War; and, except under very special circumstances, before guns are demanded from store, to be taken over by the Royal Artillery, for the purpose of being mounted, the sanction of the Secretary of State for War and the Commander in Chief is to be applied for through the Adjutant General.

G.O. 119.—Re-engagement of Armourers.

It being a matter of great importance that none but men who have proved themselves to be fully qualified, both as regards conduct and efficiency, should be re-engaged for the corps of armourers, commanding officers are strictly enjoined, with reference to G.O. 91 of 1868, to be very particular in ascertaining, previous to allowing these men this privilege, that they have not contracted intemperate habits, are well conducted, and do their work in a careful and satisfactory manner.

G.O. 120.—Medals—North-West Frontier of India.

Adverting to G.O. 71 of 1869, commanding officers, in transmitting returns of officers and men entitled to the medal for service on the North-West Frontier of India, will distinguish those who may be already in possession of the medal for the 2nd Burmese or the Persian campaigns by inserting the letters B.M. or P.M., in red ink, against their names in the column of "remarks."

G.O. 121.—Local Sanitary Committees.

Adverting to paragraph 1004 of the Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, it is pointed out that there is no regulation authorizing travelling expenses to be incurred by local sanitary committees on visiting out-stations.

The officer commanding at an out-station, and the medical officer in charge, will be held responsible that all sanitary precautions are attended to.

GEN. ORDERS—continued.

G.O. 122.—Recruiting.

Commanding officers are not to delay returning the half of W. O. Form 975 to the officer from whom they may have received the attestation of a recruit, for delay in this particular prevents the reward being paid, and consequently retards the completion of the recruiting pay list, and also acts detrimentally to the recruiting service.

G.O. 123.—Correspondence between Home and Foreign Stations.

The attention of commanding officers of corps is specially drawn to the alterations shown in italics, in the following amended reading of paragraph 1468 of the Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army.

Transmission of documents through the Adjutant-General.

1468. Official documents and returns passing between the service and depôt companies of a regiment, or from one regiment to another, the postage on which is to be charged against the public, are invariably to be sent under cover to the Adjutant General of the Forces. Each packet must be properly addressed and accompanied by a letter or schedule specifying in detail the documents contained in it, but special care must be taken that no private or other unauthorized communications are so transmitted.

By command,

W. PAULET, Adj. Gen.
